• This is the first HD Blu-ray disc for the 1972-1979 major league World Hockey Association.

• The World Hockey Association Hall of Fame is an independent organization of hockey historians, journalists and former WHA coaches, players and management who are dedicated to honoring the 1972-1979 major league.

• The WHA HOF produces video documentaries and DVD releases, book releases, free Web sites – and creates a massive media archive of restored audio, video and photos. These materials are available through our web site at www.WHAhof.com

“The Best Of The WHA Hall of Fame” video Blu-ray disc includes newly discovered 1970s WHA film (now transferred to High Definition video), more new exclusive WHA HOF documentaries and features – plus newly restored versions of the best of the previous WHA Hall of Fame DVD releases.

The Blu-ray also includes exclusive video from our previous 2-DVD WHA Indianapolis Racers set (with Wayne Gretzky’s entry to the major leagues) – which is now completely sold out – and this content is now only available on this Blu-ray.

This Blu-Ray features more than FIVE HOURS of our exclusive productions.

WHAT IS NEW ON THE FIVE-HOUR BLU-RAY DISC:

- The WHA Jets “Hotline” (Bobby Hull documentary)
- WHA Team Films in 16x9 High Definition
- WHA Finals Highlights
- Rare WHA Gretzky Film
- WHA Hall of Fame Features

RESTORED AND ENHANCED FEATURES FROM THE WHA HOF DVD SERIES:
